

DO YOU KNOW

Candidates, that you are losing hundreds and thousands of votes every day? Yes, actually LOSING them, by not having your friends call for votes when trading at the Contest Stores. The merchants are anxious and willing to give these votes out, but they are often so busy that they forget, and unless votes are called for, they are forever lost. See your friends, insist upon them saving votes for you---every vote will count in the contest at the end.

We have printed cards---they are yours for the asking---giving the names of all the merchants and the number of votes issued with each purchase, you sign these cards, hand them to your friends to remind them to call for votes and cast them in your favor.

We also have receipt books for subscriptions to the Ardmoreite. Call, phone or write, and we will give you cards and books.
